

Department M

Dairy Cattle

Superintendent: Marlee Johnson

General Rules for Dairy Cattle:

1. See Fair General Rules and Livestock General Rules for additional information.
2. This department is open to Dairy Cattle of any breed.
3. Exhibitors have the option of bringing their dairy cattle in on Wednesday of fair week, between noon and 7:00 p.m. or only for the show.
4. Exhibitors who decide to bring their cattle for the whole fair must make a note on their entry form to that effect, so space will be allotted for their dairy cattle with their club.
5. Dairy cattle coming in just for the show must be on the fairgrounds by 10:00 a.m. on Friday of fair week. They may leave as soon as the superintendent releases them but no later than 5:00 p.m. on Friday of fair week.
6. Dairy Cattle Showmanship attire is preferred. Showmanship attire is: White pants, white shirt (long or short sleeved) and hard soled shoes. NO TIE REQUIRED IN DAIRY CATTLE ATTIRE.
7. Dairy cattle must be dehorned with any re-growth no longer than 4 inches.
8. All animals must be halter broke.
9. Maximum two (2) Exhibits per lot number.
10. Exhibitor need not own the animal they exhibit, however, the training and grooming must be done by exhibitor.

KIDDIE PARADE

Are you looking for a fun event to do this summer with your children?

Come and join us for the annual Kiddie Parade held on Thursday, July 29, 2010 at 11:00 am. The parade lines up at 10:00 am. Dress up, decorate your bike or wagon etc... There are seven different categories to choose from: single horse, multiple horses, walkers, daycares, groups (5 or more children), riders (no-motorized vehicles), and marching units. There is a trophy for each category plus a Chairman's Award and Sweepstakes Award. The Sweepstakes winner also gets a place in the Stampede Parade held on Saturday July 31, 2010 at high noon!

The parade route goes from Women's Park through the alley behind the Livery Travel building, down Last chance Gulch to 6th Avenue (where the walking mall starts). After the parade we return to Women's Park to have lunch for the children and give out trophy awards. We also have a drawing for bikes for the participants. The cost for the parade is only $1.00 per child. This is a great event to do with your children or as a group so start thinking of all of those really creative ideas and join us. Deadline to sign-up is Tuesday, July 27th.
